

Knights of Columbus Corpus Christi Assembly 2810 June 2017

Faithful Navigator - Roland Salerno

Brother Sir Knights:

As our Assembly transitions into a new Columbian year and I look back on the past two years of my being your Faithful Navigator, I am grateful for the progress we've made. Our Assembly programs are all on solid ground thanks to the Brothers who give their time and talent to make them successful.

Serving as your Faithful Navigator these past two years has been my honor. I want to thank all of you who have participated in making our Assembly a success. I consider all of you my Brothers, bonded together in the principals of our Knights of Columbus order. As our newly elected officers assume their positions of leadership in our Assembly, let us continue to provide the support they need to keep moving forward.

Thank you for the privilege of being Faithful Navigator.

Please remember to pray for our country, the people who protect us and keep us safe, and all our Brother Knights and their families in need of prayer.

Holy Mary, Queen of the Knights, pray for us.

S.K. Roland J. Salerno
Faithful Navigator, Corpus Christi Assembly #2810

Candlelight Vigil to Honor Fallen Flagler County Officers

The Knight of Columbus Assembly 2810 attended the candlelight vigil to remember fallen heroes. They lead the procession carrying the council and National Flag behind the Flagler County Sheriff Rick Staley and his wife.

They marched up State Road 100 in silence, with blue candlelight flickering in their hands. More than 100 people walked in unison to pay tribute to Flagler County's fallen heroes.

The Flagler County Sheriff's Office held a memorial Thursday night to pay homage to its officers who have died on duty. A contingent of deputies, retired officers and residents made the half-mile trek from the Kim C. Hammond Justice Center the Sheriff's Office Operations Center, where a candlelight vigil was held.

"Law enforcement officers across the country share a commitment to the communities they serve," Flagler County Sheriff Rick Staley said. "They are not looking for notoriety or recognition. In fact, they rarely hear the words 'Thank you.'"

The department's annual memorial is held during National Police Week, a tribute that began in 1962 to honor officers nationwide "who gave the ultimate sacrifice."

This year marked the first time the department held the memorial at night, an idea Staley said he got years ago after attending a national memorial for fallen officers in Washington, D.C.

Flagler's three deputies killed in the line of duty are listed on the Officer Down Memorial Page, an international online database for slain law enforcement officers.
